Why Girl Scouts?

Girl Scouts are confident—even in the face of challenges. They're kind, even when others aren't. They take on adventures with their friends. They're problem solvers who see opportunity where others get stuck. Essentially, a Girl Scout is your kid at their best. We're here with your family to support:

Her Dreams

Girl Scouts learn about robots, dance, hike, paint murals, and feed the hungry. If she can dream it, we'll help her do it.

Her Growth

Girl Scouts focus on their potential, not perfection. They try new things, knowing their friends will encourage them to try again if they don't get it right.

Her Success

Girl Scouts are all about collaboration. Meeting goals and celebrating wins as a team teaches girls the life-long lesson to work well with others.

What is Girl Scouts?

Girl Scouts is where she can put on a play, go camping, explore the cosmos, and stand up for her beliefs—all with friends right beside her. It's a way of life. Being a Girl Scout makes kids part of something bigger than themselves. Girl Scouts in your town, across the country, and even overseas are trying new things and testing their limits, all with the goal of making the world a better place. Because while one girl can make a difference, there's no limit to what a unified movement of Girl Scouts across the globe can accomplish.

How does it work?

Girls can become Girl Scouts at any point starting in kindergarten and through high school graduation. By joining for just $30, you'll join a group of girls and families called a troop and get a full year of adventures, including events and special programs. At virtual or in-person meetings—led by Girl Scout volunteers—Girl Scouts explore a wide range of activities including the outdoors, science, entrepreneurship, and life skills. Choosing the ones that excite them the most, they earn badges to reflect successes and show the world what they're made of.
